

The Sinclair Broadcasting Group is clearly violating the public interest with its attempt to force its local affiliates to air political propaganda in the guise of a documentary.